PRACTICAL INFO

MARIO NEGRI INSTITUTE FOR PHARMACOLOGICAL RESEARCH - ADDRESS:

Via La Masa, 19
20156 Milano, Italy

HOW TO GET TO MARIO NEGRI:

Milan is easily reachable from two international airports:

From Milano Orio al Serio: there is a shuttle bus to the railway station Milano Centrale, from where you can use the subway Linea 2 to get the station Cadorna Ferrovie Nord and then, by train, the Mario Negri Institute (see above).

From Milano Malpensa: you can take the train called Malpensa Express and get off at the Milano Bovisara Politecnico station (see above).

If you already are in Milan, the easiest way to get Mario Negri Institute is by taking a train from Cadorna Station (see above). Please notice that taxi from Milano Malpensa to Milano are expensive, about 100€.

By car: coming from the centre of Milan take via Mac Mahon until you reach Piazza Pompeo Castelli. Take the first road on the right (via degli Ailanti), then the first on the left, under the railroad tunnel. After the tunnel turn to the left in via Giampietrino. Go straight in via La Masa and take the first road on the right.
